2003 Cessna Citation CJ1

Citation CJ1

The Cessna Citation CJ1 is a proven light jet, highly regarded for its strong balance of performance, operating efficiency, and cabin comfort.

Designed for short- to mid-range business missions, it typically accommodates up to 5 passengers in a refined, functional cabin that suits both executive travel and private trips.

Known for its reliability, mature support network, and practical operating profile, the CJ1 can access a wide range of airports—helping passengers save valuable time and travel with greater flexibility.

It is a smart, confidence-inspiring aircraft: efficient to run, dependable in service, and consistently attractive for owners and operators alike.
