

Thierry Boutsen named ZOUTE CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE® judge

September 10, 2019 — Monaco — Former F1 and Le Mans racing driver Thierry Boutsen has been named on the international judging panel of this year's ZOUTE CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE® by Degroof Petercam.

Belgium's most recent Formula 1 race winner (1990 Hungarian Grand Prix) has always had a passion for engineering. That was proven not only during his long racing career but also in his whole business life. An F1 starter 163 times, his greatest success came in the colours of Benetton and Williams/Renault. He won his first two Grands Prix in Canada and Australia in 1989, then the Hungarian GP a year later. He ended his racing career in 1999. Since then he has focused all his efforts on Boutsen Aviation. With great success. Set up in 1997, it is now one of the world's leading brokers with over 375

Business Jet sales. In parallel, Boutsen runs a Classic Car business, based in Monaco, sourcing exceptional cars for exceptional clients.

The organisers of the ZOUTE GRAND PRIX® are honoured to be able to welcome this icon of Belgian motorsport to the tenth edition of the classic car festival. The ZOUTE CONCOURS D'ÉLÉGANCE® for rare and exceptional classic cars takes place at the Royal Zoute Golf Club in Knokke-Heist on Saturday 12 and Sunday 13 October. Thierry Boutsen will be one of the judges.

