

FULL STEAM AHEAD INTO 2020 FOR BOUTSEN AVIATION

Monaco, February 28th, 2020 - The new decade already got off to a flying start for the Boutsen Aviation team. After closing 2019 with successful transactions including one Boeing BBJ, two Dassault Falcon 7X, one Falcon 2000EX, one Gulfstream G550, one Bombardier Challenger 604 and many more, the company just sealed the first deal of 2020 with a Premier 1A. This sale marks the 379th aircraft sold to date.

The sales team is already on the starting block with aircraft dynamic listings and a series of industry related-events. Last month, Atiesh Mishra partook in the Falcon Tour India whereas Thierry Boutsen, Dominique Trinet and Timothée Marcie were in Austria to attend the annual Jet Aviation Vienna Roundtable. February started in London with James Hughes taking part in the Corporate Jet Investor conference, quickly followed by Mr Marcie who headed to Singapore for the Singapore Airshow.

"Extending our presence at these events represents a unique opportunity for the international growth of Boutsen Aviation. Networking worldwide with aviation professionals and staying abreast of the latest industry insights is a key part of our expert knowledge" comments Mr Boutsen.

New event to come:

On March 12th, Boutsen Aviation will act as one of the main sponsors of the Winter Aviation Summit 5th edition. The event will be held in Vevey, Switzerland and Mr Trinquet will take to the floor to discuss the topic "Sales, How to Stay Ahead of the Curve" along with Jetcraft and Jetnet IQ.

"We are glad to sponsor the Winter Aviation Summit for the third year in a row. This event is important for us as it gathers the key actors of the business aviation industry in a high-end intimate setting" says Mr Trinquet.
