Boutsen Aviation's Spring News

Monaco, May 18, 2017 — As winter turned to spring in Monaco, Boutsen Aviation has been highly active both at home and abroad. April has been a busy month, both in sales and acquisitions, events and traveling, and preparations for the upcoming EBACE this month...

Boutsen Aviation will exhibit 2009 Falcon 7X - s/n 036 and the unique 2012 Falcon 7X - s/n 135 (the only 7X with a shower) on the static display #SD02 at EBACE in Geneva, Switzerland from May 22 - 24. This year marks the seventh year of the company's presence at EBACE.

PRESS RELEASE

Just released on the market, Boutsen Aviation has added to its listing the 2009 Falcon 7X EASy II+ s/n 036 and the unique 2012 Falcon 7X - s/n 135 (the only 7X with a shower). “The addition of two 7X to our listing shows our expertise and friendly relationship with Dassault and their three-engine model” says Mr. Trinquet. Additionally, the 2000 Challenger 604 s/n 5448 has been added to the listing by Boutsen Aviation’s Middle East division in Dubai. Currently, the company has 20 aircraft for sale on exclusive basis.

Outside of the office, Founder and Chairman Thierry Boutsen participated in a cycling race from Saint-Tropez to Monaco on April 30. Organized by the Champagne and Oyster Cycling Club of Monaco (COCC), the event was a fundraiser for the Foundation Princess Charlene. Thierry, a former F1 champion, seen on the picture with Prince Albert II of Monaco, was also joined by other Formula One colleagues in that race, including Mika Häkkinen. “The sense of team spirit is essential, both at work and beyond” remarks Mr. Boutsen. “Participating in these types of events, of course combining a great cause with my avid passion for cycling, is not only reminiscent of my racing days, but reminds me of the importance of teamwork for everyone at Boutsen Aviation. As we head into the busy period of May, I know the team is ready.”
